

School before

Petronela Filipová

My grandmother said to me:

- When she was going to school in the winter, there wasn't heating, so she had to bring wood to school every morning and then they made fire in the fireplace

Saturdays

- Before they had to go to school on Saturday too
- Sometimes they went to collect potatoes on Saturdays in the summer

Physical education

- Every child had to have the same clothes on the PE

Spartakiada

- It is a mass dance
- Children from each town went to perform it to Prague
- They all danced to one song together
- They had to learn the choreography on PE

- All lessons were in one class
- They didn't have any homework
- They had only one notebook where were they wrote all subjects
