

SCHOOLS

IN THE
PAST

NOW

EQUIPMENT

- writing with ink pen
- blackboards and chalk
- learning from books
- less pictures in textbooks
- writing with ballpen
- (interactive) whiteboard
- learning from computers
- more colourful textbooks

ORGANISATION

- school on Saturday
 - crafts lessons
 - only state schools
 - more holidays
 - variable timetable
 - more than 30 pupils in one class
- no school on Saturday
 - ICT lessons
 - private, church and state schools
 - shorter holidays
 - school always starts in the morning
 - less pupils

OTHER

- strict teachers
- physical punishment allowed
- free textbooks and other supplies
- same clothes for PE
- "pioneer" organisation
- Spartakiáda
- rude children
- physical punishment forbidden
- expensive things to school
- free choice
- no political organisation

TOPS

- Good facilities and equipment
- Friendly relationship teachers - pupils
- Open atmosphere
- Fun with teachers
- Discipline
- Interesting activities
- Breaks outside
- A lot of space
- Teaching materials
- Fixed learning schedule
- Facilities
- Pleasant sound of a bell
- Cloakroom

TIPS

- No punishments
- No uniforms
- Lots of memorizing
- Strick teachers